HORACE GREELEY,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
B. GRATZ BROWN,
OF MISSOURI.

FOR ATTALTE JUDGE,
HON. W. S. PRYOR,
OF KENTUCKY.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT.

Soldier's Execution.
The news came flushing over the wires yesterday that the Baltimore Convention, with singular unanimity, nominated Greeley and Brown—thus adopting the candidates and the platform of the Liberal party. No one of average intelligence is surprised at this action, and hundreds of thousands of good Democrats all over the land will rejoice to hear this result. "The die is cast, the nation is crossed." We, as good and true Democrats, desiring as we do, the welfare of our whole country in preference to men and measures, have put our shoulders to the wheel, our hands to the handles of the plow, and there it is turning, nor must there be back from the path upon which we have set out. We knew full well before the Convention met, that the result to-day made known as a solemn fact, would be effected. We indeed rejoice to know that such a thing has been accomplished, and that now as has been so well and eloquently said by another, "We to-day clasp hands across the bloody chasm made by the war." In no other way could we have so well done. We stand, to-day, by the action of our National Democratic Convention, pledged to support our Liberal allies in their great efforts to throw off the yoke which has bound, and the chains which have fettered us a people; undeserving the galling of that yoke and the clanking of those chains. We do not doubt—for that would be hypocrisy—that we should greatly prefer a Democratic nominee, had it been in our power to have elected him; but as we had no such power, was it not far better to unite our strength with the Liberal host who have declared it to be their intention in good faith, to restore our country, and all her people, to that estate which they possessed and glorified in before the war was? Thus believing, we have done what we could to effect the result of the convention which closed its labors so recently in Baltimore. Of course there were some in that patriotic body who did not approve its action, but we rejoice to know that they only represent a small portion, and we earnestly hope that before the day set apart by their leaders, wiser and better counsels will prevail, and that they will fall into our lines and battle with and for us against a common enemy. Why should they not do so? What have they to gain or expect by a failure to do so? Is it possible that any man can believe that the little remnant of delegates at Baltimore, who went off into a separate concave, and passed distinct resolutions, has power to call about its support any serious aid? If so, why? Have they already forgotten the lessons of the recent past—the lessons of all such disaffected minorities? We beg them, in God's name—in the name of party and of principle—their own good, to pause for a calm moment and duly consider the error of their ways! The day has come, at last, thank God, in which men, in their wild hunt for office, seem willing to sacrifice self for the good of their country. Otherwise, the result at Baltimore might have been far different. We rejoice to know that it was left to the Democratic party to lay aside all party animosity and party pride and declare, in solemn council, that they preferred the glory and success of their country to the glory and advancement of their leaders.

The Banner State.
Several States, both North and South, are claiming that they will bear the banner for the greatest majority at the November election. Kentucky has borne that banner for the Democracy, ever since the war, and we believe, she will not now fail to bear it gloriously in the coming election. These States are claiming that they will give Greeley from 50,000 to 60,000 majority. If this is all, stand aside for old Kentucky intends to give him 75,000 majority. However, we shall not repine even though we should lose that banner, and suffer some other gallant State of the Union to bear it with renewed zeal. This is right. We gladly receive them back and welcome them as much as the "ninety and nine which went not astray."

Hon. J. S. Chrisman.

This gentleman was chosen by our recent Democratic convention, to preside over the deliberations of that body. A more suitable man could not have been selected. He is a fine parliamentarian—impartial and polite—treating all with a similar courtesy, without favor or affection. He committed no blunders, and gave universal satisfaction to all assembled. We delight to honor and applaud the man who—had such authority as he was—would fill the position with credit to himself and those who placed him in the chair.

On the 27th of May last, one W. J. Weaver, claiming to be from Los Angeles, California, was married to Miss Mary Sharpe, of Liberty Kentucky, which was announced in this JOURNAL by our Liberty reporter. A few days ago the P. M., of that town received a communication from Tomkinsville, Kentucky, from the P. M., at that place, that the young Weaver had a wife and two children living there. This statement was corroborated soon after by an official Masonic letter to the brotherhood in Liberty. The father of the outraged young lady left Middleburg for Jacksonville, to bring home his sorrowing daughter, and have justice meted to the villain bigamist. Young ladies who are anxious to marry had better "look before they leap."

A. G. Talbot.

A gentleman in town has suggested a new, but effective way of getting rid of hawks. He proposes to send them eastward, down into some deep gorge of the mountains in Fentress county, Tennessee, and keep them there until after the election.

COLONEL TALBOT.

We had, prior to the meeting of the Democratic convention, written an article, showing up the inconsistencies and falsehoods contained in the voluminous handbill recently put forth by this "representative candidate for Congress," but being pressed for space, and believing that the Democracy of this Congressional district will see at once the fallacy of the gentleman's arguments, and are fully aware of his future intentions, and that he eats no figure in this our column, we withhold it from our columns.

It is very patent to us that Mr. Talbot has made up his mind to rule or ruin the Democratic party of this district; and we here predict that before the first of August, he will be the Republican candidate for Congress and a supporter of Ulysses. For this reason the Democratic party of this district should acquiesce in the decision of the convention. While we do not for a moment abate one jot or tittle of our opinion that the committee did only what they had a perfect right to do; and that they acted under the circumstances, how the convention could have acted otherwise than to adopt the resolutions which they did.

We sincerely hope, therefore, that the action of the convention will meet the views of the whole committee, and of the party throughout the district. For in the language of the able and distinguished chairman of the convention, Hon. J. S. Chrisman, of Wayne county, "we have a wily and compact foe to battle against, and if we divide our forces, defeat seems to be inevitable, but if we unite them, victory is sure to perch upon our banner."

Don't Bother Yourself.

It is amusing to hear the vehement Radicals congratulating themselves when some prominent Democrat writes a letter or makes a speech, in which Greeley is denounced, or at least not endorsed. How very eagerly they pick up and read, or publish all such stuff, just as though the Democracy depended for success upon what Jones, or Smith, or Brown might happen to say or write? Don't bother yourselves, friend Radicals! It will all come right in due time. Our party is just as independent of these old "puff-puffs" as need be, and the party can get along as well without them as they can without the party. If Mr. Dan Yorke, or Mr. Alex. H. Stevens, or Mr. A. C. Turner, or E. H. Franks, Gustavus Partell, H. N. Wells, A. J. Mershon, C. F. Butler, Charles Severy, William Harris, James Rice, W. L. Moore, W. H. Miller, J. W. Lovell, Madison, J. F. Cook, A. K. Denby, H. Rochester, A. Dunn, J. W. Green, J. W. Hardin, F. M. Bush, Z. P. McBrayer, J. B. Thompson, Jr., L. L. Neal, H. T. Davies, B. Thompson, Jr., J. L. Powell, W. T. Gerry and Gallagher; Alternates—Jas. Smith, J. J. Smith, B. A. Smith, B. A. Allin, Jr., Nat. Gathier, T. H. Head, W. M. H. Barnes, Jas. Wilson, Phil. T. Atkin, Dan. M. T. Vandyke and Mr. Phillips; Palaski—W. E. Ingalls and Wm. G. Russell; Russell—J. D. West and J. Allen; Steckel—J. A. Netherland, J. H. Chandler and Jas. F. Caldwell—Hon. Jas. S. Christian, H. M. Sallee, R. C. McBeath, William East and M. P. Sallee.

Col. P. B. Thompson, of Mercer, read and offered the following resolutions:

WHENAS, Much dissatisfaction has been expressed at the mode and manner of the selection of the delegates to this convention, and as it is the desire of the Democracy to have an aspirate, and not obtaining a full expression of the wishes of a majority of the Democratic voters of the district as to who shall be their standard-bearer in the coming conflict for a representative in Congress. And whereas each of the several aspirants have repeatedly stated that they will not be nominated unless the freest opportunity is offered to all, to express it, and believing also that the harmony of the party will thus be promoted, and the success of the candidate more certainly assured.

Resolved, That this convention will not make a nomination for a candidate for Congress, and that the question of his selection be again referred to the Democratic voters of the district under the Statewide agreement.

Resolved, That the sentiment of this convention is that the nomination of a vast majority of the Democratic party, the poll should be opened at every voting precinct in the district, under the supervision of such commissioners as may be appointed by the County Committee, and that the names and votes being publicly given thereof each and every Democrat be requested to express his preference for a candidate, that the result, as indicated by the poll books of each precinct, be forthwith presented to the chairman of the county committee, that the same immediately transmit the same to the chairman of the state committee of the district, who shall publish the result, announce who has received the greatest number of votes and that he is the Democratic candidate for Congress.

Resolved, That in the appointment of the commissioners to act as election judges each shall have one ballot, and shall be entitled to vote at the polls, and the polls shall be opened at 6 o'clock, A. M. and closed at 7 p. m. of that day.

Resolved, That the central committee be requested to make the proper arrangements to effect the objects of the foregoing resolutions.

Resolved, That the Democratic party in this convention nominate James S. Christian for Sheriff of Lincoln county at the next August election, if elected, to make the people a good officer.

Resolved, That the thanks of this convention are hereby tendered the executive committee of this district for their earnest and persistent efforts to reconcile our party differences and to adjust the claims of the various Democratic candidates, for the nomination as a candidate for Congress, in this district.

On motion the convention adjourned sine die.

This gentleman is a Radical in disguise! If we want a full Democratic delegation from Kentucky in Congress, we must submit to the action of the District Convention, and act harmoniously.

A gentleman who loves the principles of the Democratic party and desires its success, over Radicalism and corruption will never be caught by the shaft thrown out by Col. A. G. Talbot.
